

Hardin-Jefferson Independent School District School-Parent Compact

China Elementary School and Sour Lake Elementary School, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards. This school-parent compact is in effect during the school year 2023 - 2024.

SCHOOLS RESPONSIBILITY

China and Sour Lake Elementary Schools will:

Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's academic achievement standards as follows:

- Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually and at flexible times) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievements, to inform parents of their school's participation in Section 1116 of ESSA and to explain the requirements of this part and the right of parents to be involved.
- Provide materials and training to help parents work with their children, such as literacy training and using technology.
- Communicate with parents and families on an ongoing basis, ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between home and school, and in a language the family members can understand.
- Provide reasonable support for parental involvement activities as parents may request.
- Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress.
- Provide parents reasonable access to staff.
- Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities.

PARENTS RESPONSIBILITY

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding, as appropriate.
- To instill in my children a respect for teachers and authority
- To emphasize the value of education

STUDENTS RESPONSIBILITIES

We, as students, will share the responsibility to:

- Improve our academic achievement by completing my homework every day and ask for help when I need to.
- Read at least thirty minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give to my parent or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school or teacher every day.
